Six Men Drop From the Third Story of a San Francisco Building.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—While working on a new building at the corner of Fourth and Natoma streets this morning six men were precipitated to the ground from the third story by the breaking of a scaffold. Two of the men will die and the others are seriously hurt. The men who will die are John Riley, a bricklayer, and one whose name has not been learned. The injured are Joe Buckley, Bert O'Dell, Andrew Bruce and Joe Steele, all of whom were working as bricklayer and hodcarriers.

THE DEAD AND INJURED.

Goes to Central America to Look After the Interests of Uncle Sam.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—The cruiser Milwaukee, commander Charles A. Gove, sailed this afternoon for La Union, Salvador, having been ordered there by the Navy Department after the receipt of dispatches from Central America to the effect that further trouble was impending there. The Milwaukee came down from the Mare Island navy yard this morning and passed out of the Golden Gate shortly after 1 o'clock. She will be followed by the collier Saturn, which will carry a supply of coal for the Milwaukee and the gunboat Yorkton, now in Central American waters.

TO RETURN INDICTMENTS AGAINST DISTURBERS

Striking Carmen Will Be Charged With Assault — Three Must Answer to Charges of Hurling Bricks.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Indictments against six men who have been engaged in the recent disturbances growing out of the strike of the carmen are to be returned this afternoon, when a special session of the grand jury has been called to meet in Judge Coffey's chambers in the Temple Israel. George Peterson, R. Schmidt and J. Kyle, striking carmen, are to be charged with assault and participating in a riot, and Barney Olson, Charles Langley and John W. Hayes with throwing bricks at street cars. These six indictments were voted at the meeting of the grand jury held yesterday, and it is considered probable that others will be added as a result of the examination of other witnesses who will be subpoenaed to appear this afternoon. Judge Coffey is out of the city on a short vacation, but Acting Presiding Judge Lawlor will receive the returns of the grand jury and the indictments will be placed on the regular file. Five men in addition to the three who were captured Saturday night, when the police made a raid on the hoodlums who were engaged in an attack on a car near the Chutes, are known to the grand jury, and indictments against them will be returned as soon as the evidence is in such shape as to warrant formal action.

WOMEN IN CRITERION'S BLOODIEST BATTLE

Officer Breaks Hoodlum's Jaw

Dozen Men Engage In Wild Night Fight

Giants fell and women shrieked in a bloody pitched battle and riot on the lawn of the Criterion Chateau about midnight Sunday night. In the scuffle that was created by six husky Sacramento sports, one of their number was knocked to the ground by Constable Thomas Carroll, who broke the fellow's jaw and knocked two teeth out of his head. A party of women who had just arrived at the cafe were terrified and screamed and called for help.

The six young bloods from the capital city drove up to the Criterion at a late hour and ran in for drinks. Their chauffeur called to them for his fare, but they denied this until they had indulged in a drink around the crowd. The mahout ran into the saloon and demanded the money. When it came to a show down, there was only 29 in the crowd.

PAY PART OF BILL.

This was paid to the automobile driver to meet a part of his $19 bill. The sports had nothing more to pay him, so he drove away. According to one of the patrons of the place who was there at the time of the disturbance, a large touring car filled with gay young folks drove up to the front steps of the chateau. They had no more than alighted when the six men, left behind without a cent and alone in a drunken stupor, rushed up and demanded the automobile. Seeing a fight coming, the gayly dressed woman ran into the chateau for protection. Their men friends remained by the machine to protect it from the six bullies.

In the fight that followed blows were struck and profane yells were made that aroused the neighborhood. As quickly as the shouts were sent up, the waiters, bartenders and proprietors of the chateau hurried to the lawn to quell the disturbance.

CONSTABLE DOWNED.

Constable Thomas Carroll and Night Watchman J. R. Swift were in the cafe eating at the time of the fight.

CHICAGO MEN MAY GO OUT

SAMUEL SMALL, president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America. —From photograph secured by Tribune.

Strike-Breaker With a Big Gun Is Now Journeying on Trip to Oakland.

WEST OAKLAND, June 26.—The following telegram has been received at headquarters:

"LOS ANGELES, June 26.—With his typewriter under his arm, and a big gun in his pocket, a strike breaker, known by the name of Powellson, who, it is said, worked through the recent Houston trouble, left on this afternoon's Owl for Oakland. He is very dark and about five feet, seven inches in height. Is said to have the reputation of being a gun-man in Texas. He formerly worked in Utah. He is smooth shaven and very dark, and might be taken for an extreme southerner or a Mexican. He wears a straw hat, dark suit, white shirt, and really carries a cannon. There was no way of reaching you earlier with this information as I did not get it until 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. Young Rogers, one of our men here, knew him in Utah when he was in good standing in the union.

(Signed) McERNEY.

WEST OAKLAND, June 26.—The story is going the rounds here that President Small is about to call out the Chicago telegraphers. If many more men are sent here to take the places of the strikers it is declared that this action will be taken by the president.

At Sunset hall, headquarters of the telegraphers, President S. J. Small said this morning:

"I am hopeful the present strike will not be prolonged. We are very anxious to avoid any kind of trouble, but, when forced to it, we will, of course, fight. That is only natural. Should the two telegraph companies refuse to meet their operators in order to adjust the differences now existing there is no doubt in the world but that the struggle will continue, until we can force a government investigation. The people of this country and particularly those in California, are not in a mood to tolerate 'strong armed methods.' We claim that the telegraph companies are using 'strong armed methods' to increase their earnings. 'They tax the public twenty to forty per cent, and give as their excuse for doing so, the increasing of the employees' wages, when in fact they are double crossing those same employees; and the ten per cent increase promised them last March has not materialized.

"We are willing and anxious to do anything in reason to adjust the present trouble. The union need not appear in the adjustment at all, and as has often been stated before, if the employees of the telegraphers will deal honestly and honorably with their operators they will never hear of the union. We claim the sliding scale of black list, and the employment of women, at less than will pay their living expenses in dishonest and, in a way, criminal. That is what both the

SENSATIONAL STORY IS TOLD ON WITNESS-STAND

Miss Elizabeth Loving, With Tears Streaming From Her Eyes, Tells of Brutal Assault.

Has a father the right to kill a youth who drugs and ruins his daughter?

JUDGE LOVING IS ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE. HE SHOT AND KILLED A YOUNG MAN WHO GAVE HIS DAUGHTER DRUGGED WHISKY AND THEN RUINED HER. LOVING IS THE MANAGER OF THE BIG VIRGINIA ESTATE OF THOMAS F. RYAN. THE LATTER, WHO IS WORTH $100,000,000, TOLD HIS MANAGER HE WOULD BACK HIM TO HIS LAST DOLLAR TO FIGHT THE MURDER CHARGE.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

HOUSTON, Virginia, June 26.

—Between stifling sobs, with tears streaming from her eyes, Miss Elizabeth Loving, who has occupied the center of the stage in the trial of her father, William G. Loving, for the murder of Theodore Estes, told on the witness stand here last evening the story of her alleged ruin by the young man whom her parent shot down.

It was the same story she said she told to her father on the morning of the tragedy and which culminated in his hunting down and slaying the man whom she charged with perpetrating the deed. Estes, she said, had given her a drink of whiskey from a flask he had in his pocket while they were out buggy riding on the afternoon prior to the killing.

MADE HEAD SWIM.

After taking the drink, she declared, she immediately began to feel dizzy, and her head "spinned around" as if she had been given some powerful drug. In this condition, and despite her protests she declared her escort drove her over an unfrequented road and, despite her efforts at resistance and her screams, assaulted her.

Exhausted by the struggle and her mental faculties rendered incapable from the stimulant, she declared that she recalled nothing more until she regained her senses while in bed late that night at the home of County Clerk E. L. Kidd, where she had been visiting Miss Kidd.

FATHER ALARMED.

She testified that on the following morning when her father asked for the cause of her being brought to the home of Mr. Kidd in an unconscious and drugged condition she related to him on bended knees the same story she told today.

It was this recital, declared the defense, which so affected the mind of Judge Loving that it impelled him to commit a crime which, according to his statement, could have been prevented by no power "except God Almighty."

TOOK TWO DRINKS.

Miss Loving admitted that she had taken two drinks with young Estes during the drive, the first one being while at Estes' store.

GOES ON SPIES.

Dr. William Tunstall, of Lovings-ton, who saw Judge Loving before and after the killing, testified that he thought Loving committed the crime while insane.

Loving, he said, went on frequent debauches ending in delirium tremens.

The witness stated that during the last few years Judge Loving had become very disagreeable and intolerant, although some years ago he was pleasant and affable.

TODAY'S SESSION.

At the opening of court today in the trial of Former Judge Loving, for the killing of Theodore Estes, the defendant looked careworn. Seated with him were his son and his brother.

John and Henry Swanson, brothers of Governor Swanson, had seats upon the prosecution side. Mrs. J. P. Swanson is a relative of Estes, and her husband is taking an active part in defending the memory of the dead man.

Sheriff Beard of Amherst county, who has known Judge Loving for years, testified as to the defendant being an excessive drinker and that

WOMAN DECLARES MURDERER SWORE THAT HE WOULD SLAY STEUNENBERG FOR REVENGE

Attorney Richardson for the Defense Vows He'll Dismiss His Witnesses in Spite of Court Order to Hold Them in Boise.

BOISE, Idaho, June 26.—The defense in the Steunenberg case continues to offer evidence that Harry Orchard threatened to kill Steunenberg and that he was also a participant in a plot to destroy the Western Federation of Miners. Its first witness this morning was Mrs. Lottie Day, of Denver, who swore that Orchard had told her that but for Steunenberg he would be a millionaire, and that he intended to kill him.

John D. Elliott, an old soldier, next testified that he met Harry Orchard on a railway train late in November, 1935; and that Orchard told him that he was an agent of the Mine Owners' Association, and that there would soon be pulled off a plot that would destroy the leaders of the Miners' Federation. Both Mrs. Day and Elliott were submitted to a long and searching examination.

BOISE, June 26.—A new attorney appeared at the defendant's counsel table when the Haywood trial was resumed this morning, making the tenth change of attorneys in the case. The new attorney is Walter S. McCormack, of Chicago. McCormack has been engaged in search for evidence for the defense since he has been in Boise only since the defense was taken over.

The first witness of the day was Mrs. Lottie Day, who knew Harry Orchard at the Belmont rooming house in Denver under the name of J. Peppy. Mrs. Day said that Orchard just prior to the convention of the Western Federation of Miners in 1934. Once while she was talking to him, Haywood and a man named McDonald, who was also connected with the Federation, came in. Orchard introduced her to Haywood and then went away with him.

Mrs. Day said she was first summoned to Boise by the state, and was sent back to Denver two weeks ago. The witness related a conversation of Orchard when the latter told her that poverty had separated him from the woman he loved, and that Steunenberg was responsible for his being poor and he would get even with him if it was the last act of his life.

NO SWEARING.
"Didn't he say 'that' — Steunenberg," asked Darrow.
"No, sir, I'm not sure," said Mrs. Day. "I think he said 'that devil of a Steunenberg'."

Mrs. Day said that one day when Orchard was telling her about his gambling exploits he had always kept a little money put away, that he made a raise he put some money away with Pettibone and drew it out as he needed it.

On examination, Mrs. Day said she now conducted a rooming house in Chicago, but lived most of the time in Denver.

She was introduced to Orchard by Pettibone whom she had known for two years prior to 1934. She knew him quite well and he often visited her. Mrs. Day said she did not know Orchard under any other name than Dempsey. She did not see Orchard on the witness stand and recognized him as Dempsey by a photograph. When Haywood came to the Belmont rooming house with Orchard, the day he declared Haywood said he wished to see Orchard. The two men went into Dempsey's room. The witness said she often had seen Dempsey and Pettibone together but Pettibone never came to Dempsey's room as far as she knew.

BLAMED STEUNENBERG.
Mrs. Day said Orchard declared he would have been a millionaire if it had not been for the decision of Governor Steunenberg.

The witness said that when she was summoned by the state and made a written statement, she did not relate the conversation with Orchard in regard to Steunenberg.

"Why didn't you?" asked Hawley.
"Because I wasn't asked about it. The prosecution announced that it might desire to put her to cross examine the witness and thereby precipitated a lively fight during which Attorney Richardson declared that notwithstanding any order of the court of the subject the defense proposed to pay off its witnesses and send them home as fast as they left the stand. If the prosecution desired their presence further, he declared that the state could issue subpoenas and keep the witnesses at the expense of the people."

"If counsel for the defense sends the witnesses home they will be doing what they have no right to do," Hawley declared for the state. "And as to the suggestion that we subpoena the witnesses, we don't propose to do anything of the sort. We propose to cross examine them as witnesses for the defense and not for the prosecution."

Judge Wood announced that when a witness was sworn he or she would be held subject to the order of the court. "I should like to attack the court's views of the law," said Attorney Richardson.

DEFIES COURT.
"This matter can be satisfactorily arranged," said Judge Wood. "And I will consult with counsel on the subject of the witnesses."

"When we are through with our witnesses we will send them home and take our chances as to whether we are right or not," shouted Richardson.

"If the court will make an order on this matter," said Hawley, "we will quickly see whether the court or counsel for the defense shall prevail in this trial."

"We are not seeking trouble with the court," said Judge Wood.

ALMOST STARVE ON HONEYMOON

Bride Faints From Hunger While Groom Tries to Earn a Meal.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—Pride and poverty brought a very melancholy phase into the honeymoon of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Connor, who were discovered starving in this city.

There is a good deal of mystery about the case, and the unlucky pair are doing everything in their power to maintain it. They say that they would rather die than have their predicament known to their friends and relatives, and evidently, they are telling the truth, for the woman was on the verge of death when she collapsed in Broad-street station, and the man was found for the collapse of Mrs. O'Connor that brought the case to the attention of the police. The matron in the station saw her fall in a swoon, and it did not take an expert eye to tell that hunger was the cause of it.

WOMAN STARVING TO DEATH.
A patrol wagon was called and the woman was sent to the rooms of Mrs. Maggie Cooper, matron at City Hall. Dr. John W. Wamaker, 3d, and Dr. John Egan were called in to attend her.

"Why, the woman is starving to death," exclaimed Dr. Wamaker, "replied the patient, feebly, 'and my husband is starving too. He won't know what has become of me.'"

She described to Dr. Wamaker the station, where he found the husband wandering about in the streets, and that he had been eating something, but it was not food. He admitted that he had been eating something, but it was not food. He admitted that he had been eating something, but it was not food.

DOCTOR MADE HUSBAND EAT.
When the husband got to City Hall, Mrs. O'Connor was already in bed. He insisted upon seeing her, but she refused to get up. The doctor administered to her a good, wholesome food in small quantities, and she ate it all. Her stomach might not be overtaxed.

CHICAGO MEN MAY GO OUT

Western Union and the Postal Telegraph companies are doing all over the country.

THE BUSINESS.
At midnight Tuesday the following report was received at union headquarters showing where and how San Francisco and Oakland telegrams for the east are being handled:

In the San Francisco office there are 570 messages on hand, twelve hours behind. In Los Angeles there are 350 messages, twenty hours behind; in Salt Lake there are 175 messages, behind in which are eighteen hours late; Portland has 345 messages twenty-four hours late, and Seattle has 480 messages twenty-four hours behind.

Yesterday there were sent from Los Angeles many messages to Oakland, where they arrived in time for delivery in the early morning.

The fact that Denver, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, Portland and Seattle are delaying coast business is significant. Under normal conditions, San Francisco works direct with Chicago, New York and other large Eastern cities. Since the strike occurred business has been routed in any and all directions from the East to San Francisco. The practice of the telegraph companies being to get business as near the "storm center" as possible, and then, communication has not been restored, sent it to San Francisco by train.

The following telegram was received by President Small from Dan A. Mahoney, local secretary of the New York union. It reads:

"LOS ANGELES, June 24.—Good luck, God bless you. The entire East is sick with you."

Picket men on duty who are spying around the Western Union Company at Seventh and Bay streets after dark have been instructed by President Small to kindly cover both sides of the street, and keep moving, so that the police officers on duty there will have no cause to order them to move on.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Superintendent A. H. May of the Western Union said this morning that the company had taken on several new men and was handling business in a satisfactory manner. In a few days, he added, the city branch offices will be reopened.

Superintendent Storror of the Postal Telegraph Company declared that they had enough men at work to dispose of the messages offered with but slight delay. He said the company would only fill the vacancies in the offices with operators of the right sort.

PIONEER MERCHANT IS BURIED BY MASONS
BERKELEY, June 26.—The funeral of the late William M. Betts, a pioneer merchant of San Francisco and Berkeley, having lived here twenty years, was held at Masonic Temple this afternoon, Oakland Lodge, No. 183 having charge of the services. Interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

Decedent arrived in San Francisco in 1888 when he formed the Betts Spring, and has been actively engaged in looking after his business interests since that time. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. M. E. Betts, and a daughter, Mrs. A. MacDonald of Berkeley.

PROFESSOR SOULE IS SAFELY IN BERLIN
BERKELEY, June 26.—A letter has just been received at the University from Professor Frank Soule, head of the department of civil engineering, who is now enjoying his first leave of absence in thirty years of service. He writes that after a rather cold and stormy journey across the United States, he is now in Berlin, where all his energy is now concentrated in trying to master the German language. He and Mrs. Soule are enjoying good health, but are tired of sightseeing. They propose to leave for Dresden in the near future.

FINED FOR CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS
For having a pair of brass knuckles in his possession, John Jachadai was fined $10 by Acting Police Judge Sandholdt this morning. The defendant claimed that he found the knuckles and had just placed them in his pocket when he was taken into custody.

Discriminating Against Oakland.

Oakland is not getting a fair deal from either the railroads or the news agencies. By the former this city is treated as a mere approach to San Francisco, and is not given its proper place of importance on maps or in the advertising literature sent abroad. The news agencies treat Oakland as a suburb of San Francisco, and hence date accounts of events and occurrences in this city from the latter place. This form of discrimination has not escaped public attention, as the following letter of inquiry shows:

"Oakland, June 24, 1907.

"EDITOR TRIBUNE: Why is it that almost all the news originating in Oakland is dated in San Francisco in papers published outside of Oakland? The writer, who is a traveling salesman and an Oaklander from birth, would like to be able to read papers on the road and see Oakland news dated Oakland and not San Francisco. It is not much wonder that Oakland is so little known outside of the State, as people naturally think that it is a suburb of San Francisco and has little importance.

"Could not this matter be remedied? I suppose the Associated Press is responsible for this. If so, somebody should get after them, and you most probably would be the parties to do this.

"Oakland should be used on every occasion possible in news matter. Get the people used to saying it and talking about it. Many Oakland people, when they are away from home, register from San Francisco and talk of San Francisco as being their home. Surely they are not ashamed to say they live in Oakland. They also say they are going to San Francisco when in reality they are going to Oakland. These people should wake up and advertise their own city. Let THE TRIBUNE adopt this policy also. Many times I see San Francisco in print where Oakland would look better.

"Yours truly, A BOOSTER."

Our public bodies should give their attention to these matters. The discrimination practiced against this city is so marked and so general as to call forth vigorous protest. A demand for a square deal should go up from every throat on this side of the bay. Let San Francisco have what belongs to her, but let us insist that Oakland should have what rightfully belongs to Oakland. The people of this city have only the kindest feelings for San Francisco. They sympathize with her misfortunes and earnestly hope she will regain her old-time prosperity, but they object to being made a football of and treated as having no rights that should not be subordinated to the interests of our neighbors across the bay. Oakland news should be dated Oakland and the traveling public should be provided with decent depot accommodations in this city. Let everybody stand up for that.

Five Per Cent Gallagher magnanimously says Schmitz is welcome to the salary attached to the office of mayor of San Francisco. Such a display of generosity is somewhat surprising in a man who drew down a commission for collecting the bribes he paid his fellow boodlers. But Gallagher is a "good dog" now.

"Subscriber" is informed that the official census of 1901 gave Glasgow a population of 735,906. The increase in population and some immediately outlying suburbs gives the city a present population of fully 900,000, making it the second city in the British Isles and the nineteenth in the world.

"Benevolent assimilation" is still imposing its painful duties in the Philippines. Witness this dispatch from Manila:

"In a fierce fight between the constabulary and Moros in Lake Lanao district several of the constabulary and many Moros were killed. Detailed information is suppressed."

The suppression of detailed information unpleasantly suggests that somebody high in authority is getting ashamed of some of the disagreeable duties imposed by our government of the Filipinos. We are not only forced to kill, but are impelled to conceal what we are doing. This is rather severe on American ideals.

Again the Unwritten Law.

The "unwritten law" will probably have another vindication in the trial of ex-Judge Loving at Houston, Virginia, the slayer of young Theodore Estes. The facts disclosed at the trial are of such a character as arouse the deepest sympathy for Loving and small regret for the fate of Estes. It would be difficult to find a jury anywhere that would find Loving guilty of murder, whatever opinion the members might hold regarding the so-called "unwritten law." In Virginia where the social code is based on family purity and domestic inviolability in social intercourse, it may be taken for granted that the jury will endorse the act of Judge Loving.

Estes ruined the reputation of Loving's daughter if he did not actually corrupt her, and he did this in a manner showing the dastard. He was her social equal, a near neighbor and favored by the girl's parents as a suitor for her hand. He was trusted as a man of honor and as a friend of the family. He was allowed to take her out driving alone. This means something in Virginia among people who move in the social rank of the Loving and Estes families. He kept her out after nightfall, plied her with liquor, and brought her to the home of an acquaintance in a nearby village in a shocking condition, whether from whisky alone or whisky and drugs combined is a matter of conjecture.

What is to be thought of a man who will take a young woman out on a lonely road, get her intoxicated and expose her to the scorn and contempt of a community holding rigid views regarding the chastity and sobriety of women? What was his object? Why did he stop during the course of their drive, when the evening shades were falling, and get a bottle of whisky from his own house? The inference is direct and sinister, both as regards his motives and the character of the liquor. In Virginia, especially in rural neighborhoods, it is regarded as disgraceful for women to drink whisky, and particularly shameful if they drink alone with a man. Estes knew all this, and understood the social penalties to which he subjected his youthful companion. If he had no ulterior motive his conduct is inexplicable. In any event, he was tarnishing the fair name of Elizabeth Loving if not causing her complete social wreck. The fact that he kept her out with himself alone after dark was sufficient to arouse suspicion and apprehension in the mind of a friend of Judge Loving who met them out driving.

The condition of the girl when she subsequently arrived at the home of Mrs. Kidd told its own terrible story, carried its own sinister significance. It was such as to cause her uncle to be sent for. He insisted upon a physician being summoned at once. In spite of the relative's protest Estes ran and got a doctor, to whom he said the girl was drunk and was to be treated as such.

These are the absolute facts of the case. Judge Loving says his daughter confessed to him that she had been assaulted after the paper had carried her accusation to print. The girl says borated this statement on the stand. She may not have told the truth, but all the circumstances indicate that she did. However, the conduct of Estes was infamous in whatever light it may be viewed. The liquor he gave the girl may not have been drugged, but if he purposely induced her to drink to enable him to accomplish her ruin he was not above drugging the whisky. He may have intended to ruin her and have failed in his object. As a matter of fact, he did disgrace her in the eyes of the community.

THE DETHRONED KING—"THAT'S NO PLACE FOR ME ANY MORE!"

No wonder the father was exasperated to a pitch of desperation. The same experience would prompt almost any proud, self-respecting man to violence. The dishonor of a daughter under such circumstances puts self-control under a frightful strain. When a man gives way to his natural feelings, he is not likely to be punished by a jury—not in Virginia, at least.

3 GOVERNORS TANGLE LAWS

Illness of Arkansas' Chief Executive Results in Strange Complications.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 28.—A three cornered fight between three governors of Arkansas is tangling up State matters to a curious extent.

Gov. John S. Little, the actual executive, is said to be a mental and physical wreck and has been out of the State since Feb. 14. President John L. Moore, of the State Senate, became acting governor in Little's absence until Xenophon O. Pindall was elected by the Senate to succeed him. Pindall is 31 years old. He has ideas of his own and doesn't care who knows it. So when he walked into the governor's office within an hour after he was sworn in and started to work—this was on May 14—he began mixing things.

Moore relinquished the office to him, but in the confusion of the moment forgot to transmit to the secretary of State certain measures which he had approved. One of these Pindall opposed. Holding that it was subject to executive veto until it left the office, he vetoed the measure.

The bill happened to have been an important one, on which factions were bitterly divided. On signature by Moore it became law. The question now is whether Pindall by recalling and blocking the measure after it had become law succeeded in his rights. The question has been thrice before the courts.

HORSE GIVES FATAL DISEASE

Surgeon Dies From Glanders Contracted From Animal He Was Treating.

NEW YORK, June 26.—An autopsy upon Daniel H. McDorman, a veterinary surgeon, revealed that he was a victim of glanders, contracted from a horse he had treated.

It is rarely the disease is communicated to human beings, but when it is fatal results invariably follow, physicians say.

Dr. McDorman did not realize his peril when stricken with chills and fever. A rash soon appeared over his entire body, and he went to New York Hospital for treatment. Despite the efforts of the physicians, he succumbed after great suffering.

Dr. William J. Esser, pathologist of the hospital, reported to the Board of Health that he was unable to state definitely the cause of death, but that the diagnosis suggested acute farcy, as glanders is called when contracted by a human being. An autopsy was performed by the hospital authorities, which established the true cause of death.

Glanders is an infectious disease of the nostrils and air passages of the horse. It is now known by physicians to be extremely contagious.

Not long ago a Scotch teacher gave this advice to her pupils: "If you have cholera or scarlet fever in the house put some onions under the bed and they will sweep away all disease." The onion proved its virtue in a remarkable way forty years ago when cholera raged throughout London. It was noticed with surprise that one of the most unsanitary districts was almost exempt from the visitation. The majority of the inhabitants, being Italians, were great onion eaters, and strings of this vegetable were found suspended from the ceiling of nearly every room. The medical officer of health concluded that the onion among its many virtues, contains a powerful antidote against cholera morbus and, possibly, other diseases.

As a sample of the stinging language ex-Senator Blackburn sometimes uses may be cited his characterization of a western judge whom he had introduced to President Cleveland late in the campaign of 1888. After this judge had returned home he gave out an interview in which he professed to quote the President as having given up the election because of the treachery of Senator Hill of New York. Mayor Hewitt and others Blackburn characterized the whole statement as false, and wound up his sizzling roast in this fashion: "I can do no more than to crave the President's pardon for having been misled into introducing to him a caricature upon humanity, for whose existence the Lord in fair dealing owes an apology to mankind."

GETS $12,000 FOR THEFT OF WIFE'S LOVE FROM HIM

Student Who Steals Merchant's Actress-Bride Now Has to Foot a Pretty High Bill.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Louis J. Vause, the son of a wealthy Brooklyn merchant, who divorced his wife in June, 1904, has been awarded a judgment of $12,000, in the Supreme Court at White Plains, against Gustave Schmetzer, the co-respondent in the original suit, for the alienation of Mrs. Vause's affections. Vause had asked for $25,000 as bail for his wounded feelings.

Vause in 1893 married Charlotte Jordan, a singer and actress, known on the stage as Imogene Temple. His business interests in Manhattan kept him much away from the boarding-house on Greene avenue, near Bedford, in Brooklyn, where they made their home. It was at a bowling club that they met Schmetzer, a medical student, and one evening, a few weeks later, Vause returned to find that his wife had been ejected from the boarding-house because of the loving scenes enacted between her and the student.

The Vauses separated, and the husband at once engaged counsel. Before the suit was brought in Westchester county, Mrs. Vause telephoned her husband that she would like to see him at the Majestic Theater in Brooklyn. At the stage door he met Schmetzer, and when the combat was finished, according to Vause, only Schmetzer's hat brim inadvertently discarded in his flight, was left. Vause presented this to his wife as a souvenir.

Vause won his suit by default. It was later reopened on the plea of the wife, who desired permission to see her child. But for the second time she failed to appear.

An exciting scene occurred when Mrs. Vause, with Schmetzer, was served in the alienation suit as they descended from the office of her lawyer, George Robinson, at No. 99 Nassau street. She caught sight of her husband and, screaming "He will kill my Gussie!" rushed back into the elevator, dragging "Gussie" with her.

Schmetzer is said to be a man of means.

SAYS 'NO' TO SUITOR WHO SHOTS HER TWICE

Rejected Lover Seriously Wounds Young Woman and Ends His Own Life With Revolver.

POCOMOKE CITY, Md., June 26.—Miss Bessie Lambertson, daughter of John Lambertson, a well-known farmer of Worcester county, was shot by Lodie Davis, a rejected suitor, and is in a precarious condition. Davis afterwards shot himself, his body being found today near the place where he attacked Miss Lambertson, with a bullet hole in the breast.

The shooting occurred while the pair were out driving, a short distance from the girl's home. She was found on the road by her mother, who heard the cries of distress. According to Miss Lambertson's story, Davis asked her to marry him, and on her refusal he drew a pistol and shot her. He then demanded: "Will you marry me now?" and on her reply, "I will die first," he fired again. One ball entered her head, and the other penetrated her left lung. She pitched out of the buggy, breaking her collarbone by the fall.

EYES, SIZE, HAIR AND EVEN FEET ARE CAUSES OF LOVE

Statistics Gathered From Lovers' All Over the Country Show Strange Origins of Grand Passion.

BOSTON, June 26.—Precisely what it is—what attribute or physical characteristic—in the youth or maiden, the man or woman, that most attracts one of the opposite sex, is a problem of which Dr. G. Stanley Hall, professor of psychology in and president of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., has set out to find the solution. To this end he has taken a census of young lovers, with a view to learning what in each case has most endeared to him or her the particular object of their affection.

It was Dr. Hall who recently declared 50 per cent of college women failed to marry, thus contributing to race suicide. The complete result of this census of lovers Dr. Hall has not yet given to the public, but he has made known an abstract of what he has learned. With hundreds of lovers heard from Dr. Hall states that the characteristics specified by them are, in the order of their frequency, as follows:

Eyes, hair, size or stature, feet, brows, complexion, cheeks, form of head, throat, ears, skin, hands, neck, nose, finger nails and contour of face.

Which is to say that more of those lovers interrogated have found the loved one's eyes or hair the chief attraction than anything else.

The women replying to Dr. Hall's questions have also specified these charms in the men they loved best:

Regular teeth, broad shoulders and white teeth; and most popular among men have been long lashes and arched brows. According to some of those replying, a retreating nose, freckles and a long neck have been the chief charms.

The voice cuts an important figure among the charms. With some it is a high voice; with others, a low voice. Even a lip has been stated as a charm. Laughter, carriage, gait, gesture movements of the eye, pose of head and shoulders have also been specified in the replies.

EX-WIFE MAY AGAIN WED 'SWIFTWATER' BILL GATES

Woman Now Seeks Divorce From Man She Married Immediately After Leaving Alaskan Character.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 26.—Mrs. Berabee Cook, divorced two years ago from "Swiftwater" Bill Gates, began divorce proceedings against Harry Cook, the laundry-wagon driver she married in Vancouver, B. C., immediately after her separation from the Alaska character. The $4000 "Swiftwater Bill" gave her and $6000 worth of diamonds she had are alleged to have been dissipated by Cook, who is now charged with attempting to dispose of twelve lots and a house in West Seattle that Gates purchased for his wife when the decree of divorce was entered.

There is a story afloat here that a reconciliation with "Swiftwater" will follow the divorce. Gates is now in Oakland, said to be living with his

BOUGHT MAGIC LIQUID IN HOPE OF FINDING HUSBAND

Mary O'Connor Sprinkled It as Directed, but Charm Failed to Work, and She Is Still Unwed.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Mary O'Connor, comely and twenty-two years old, appeared yesterday in the Harlem Court as complainant against Elizabeth Auber, sixty years old, of No. 168 East Eighty-ninth street, who admitted that she had been a professional "palmist" in New York for eighteen years.

Mary had consulted her with a view to obtaining a husband. Mary's sister, Bridget, had a similar ambition, and so admitted to Magistrate Finn. Why she should have employed the services of a fortune teller was not apparent, for she is as bright eyed and attractive as her sister. Mary is a maid of all work at No. 151 East Sixty-first street and Bridget is employed by a New York family at Arverne L. I.

PAID $10 FIRST.

Attracted by an advertisement in a Sunday newspaper the O'Connor girls visited the home of Mrs. Auber on May 31 to invoke her aid in "getting a fellow," as Mary described it. She was informed that the preliminary fee would be $10 and she paid willingly.

"Then, Your Honor," explained the complainant, "I was told three days after by Mrs. Auber that I must pay $15 more if I wanted my heart's desire, and I gave her money. 'Where's the fellow?' says I to Mrs. Auber. 'He is not here yet,' says she. 'Well, I'm waiting him soon,' says I. But never a fellow did I see."

"I had $170 in a bank and I drew $100 of it to hand over to this woman. She said she would hold it for nine days and then give it back into my hand, and at the same time show me the fellow I was to marry. That was on June 3."

On June 12, rigged out in her best,

Mary returned to Mrs. Auber's house expecting, she said, to receive back her deposit of $100 and to be presented to her future husband. He wasn't there; neither was her money. Mrs. Auber told her, she said, that the "fellow" was wandering about in such a zigzag fashion that he couldn't be found by the spirits.

"She gave me a little bottle of stuff," said Mary, "which she told me to sprinkle in a circle around the fellow when I found him, and then three drops behind him and say a prayer. But, your Honor, how was I to sprinkle the water in a ring around a man I never saw?"

"Who was the fellow?" asked the magistrate.

"Indeed, sir," replied Mary, "I don't know. I never clapped my eyes on him, and me a hard-working girl."

"Did you pay anything to this woman?" asked the magistrate, addressing Bridget.

"Forty dollars," was the reply, and never a fellow did I see."

Mrs. Auber did not deny that she was a reader of the lines of the hand, but did deny that she was a fortune-teller.

"I never read men's palms," she said, "and I never allow but one person in the room at a time, because I know in law that the word of one person is as good as that of another. This girl paid a dollar, the same as everybody else."

Mrs. Auber was held in $1,000, on the charge of grand larceny, and will appear this morning for a further examination.

"It's a bold, bad woman, she is, to take an honest girl's wages drawn from the savings bank," said Mary.

RICH WOMAN PLAYS 'LADY BOUNTIFUL' FOR CLERKS

Mrs. K. S. Hamilton Takes Loads of Workers for Spin in Auto During Noon Hour.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Mrs. K. S. Hamilton, mother of Isaac Hamilton, president of the Federal Life Insurance Company, played "Lady Bountiful" in yesterday when she took an automobile load of women clerks from a department store out for a ride in her automobile.

ORANGE LAYER CAKE.

Cream together three tablespoonfuls of butter and two cups of powdered sugar, add the beaten yolks of five eggs, the juice and half the grated rind of an orange and enough prepared flour to make a good batter—about three cups. Last of all, fold in the stiffened whites of three eggs, turn into well-greased layer tins and bake in a moderate oven.

The innovation attracted considerable attention in the State street shopping district when Mrs. Hamilton's large touring car with its own "if" charge, drew up in front of a store and in a few minutes was filled with a bevy of bare-headed laughing clerks. For an hour the young women, usually cut for the luncheon at the time, were taken in the big machine through the South side parks and boulevards. Mrs. Hamilton has arranged to take several of the women clerks out every day.

CHICAGO GIRL WON'T STAND SCRATCHY KISS

CHICAGO, June 26.—Kissing a girl when his whiskers showed two days' growth cost Thomas McCarthy a fine of $75 in City Judge Sadler's court today.

Miss May Ryan, 18 years old, brought the charge against McCarthy. "I did not so much object to the kisses," said the girl, "but I was angry when he scratched my face with his whiskers."

BRIDAL SUPERSTITIONS

Married in January's hoar and rime, good things will come if you wait your time.

Married in February's sleepy weather, life you'll tread in tune together.

Married when March winds whine and roar, your home will lie on a foreign shore.

Married 'neath April's changeful skies a checkered path before you lies.

Married when bees o'er May blossoms flit, strangers around your board will sit.

Married in month of roses—June—life will be one long noneymoon.

Married in July, with flowers ablaze, bitter-sweet memories in after days.

Married in August's heat and drowse, lover and friend in your chosen spouse.

Married in golden September's glow, smooth and serene your life will go.

Married when leaves in October thin, toil and hardship for you begin.

Married in veils of November mist, fortune your wedding ring has kissed.

Married in days of December cheer, love's star shines brighter from year to year.—What to Eat.

AS YOU LIKE IT

We're astonished this year
At the glad peek-a-boo;
The peeks are so large
That maids nearly fall through
Them, and out of them, too.
And the size of their clocks
Is so big that they nearly
Fall out of their socks.

With just holes sewn together,
Maids now go arrayed,
And the "charms unadorned"
On which poets essayed,
Days ago, to pen verses
Again come to view:
Welcome, springtime and clocks;
Welcome, glad peek-a-boo.

Of Three Sites Available for Playgrounds Two Are Valued at $115,000.

ALAMEDA, June 26.—When the council holds its next meeting a determined effort will be made to bring the public park and playground proposition to an issue. Since the Board of Education has circulated return postal cards asking the citizens to give the movement their support, great interest has been taken in the project and the general feeling is that the playground is assured.

Councilman W. H. Noy is loud in his praises of a site on the south shore, near Encinal station, where there are excellent facilities for bathing and there is a large field for baseball and other sports.

President Loop of the Council is equally as enthusiastic and declares he never knew the real beauties of Alameda until he made an inspection of the proposed sites for the playground.

THREE SITES AVAILABLE.

At the present time there are three available sites. ## SORORITY GIRLS WILL BE VEGETABLE GARDENERS

MISS MARGARET SUMMERS MISS EDITH OSTRANDER.

ALPHA PHIS BLAZE PATH Maidens Lease House and Go to Work in Earnest.

BERKELEY, June 26.—Sorority girls as vegetable gardeners constitute a novelty in campus history and the Alpha Phi maidens accordingly find themselves in the enviable position of those who have ventured from the beaten trail and blazed out a new path, full of all sorts of possibilities. Fraternity circles were agitated by the news that the Alpha Phi maidens have gone into the vegetable raising business and would not credit the report until absolute confirmation was supplied by the sorority girls themselves. The girls admitted the corn, and the potatoes and the turnips and the remainder of the list of vegetables which it is supposed shall be grown on the Alpha Phi premises.

The Alpha Phis recently leased for two years the house at 2312 Durant avenue. Many of the girls have left for the summer, but the contingent which remains has decided to start a vegetable garden in the commodious back yard and already a dozen beds have been laid out, in which nestle cunning little onion seeds, cabbage sprouts, tomato cuttings and other signs of vegetable enterprise. The girls are optimistic maidens in the sorority house opinion that enough vegetables can be raised in the back yard to supply the sorority house table for a long time to come. Others who look at the commercial view of the situation believe that untold benefit will come to the girls through the opportunity afforded them of getting close to nature's heart. The Alpha Phi members are:

Misses Isabel Scudder Farrington, Florence Marshall Ward, Marguerite Dorsey Shoecraft, Effie Innes Smilie, Irene Josephine Moore, Mary Van Order, Edith Moore, Edith Gertrude Carter, Frances Helen Amann, Ruth Duncan, Margaret Summers, Margaret Stewart, Gladys Armstrong, Florence Goddard, Ruth McClelland, Irma Frances Woodward, Adelaide Stafford, Edith Albright, Stella Booth, Mary Hazel Burpee, Lita Lauxen, Lella Mae Guthrie and Nina Hazel Guthrie.

This lecture will take place in room 113 of the California Hall, on Friday evening, June 28. Dr. Fairbanks is an authority in his chosen field, and has written a standard textbook on physical geography, and an other work of high merit on the "Western Coast of the United States."

IS AWARDED BIG CONTRACT

J. J. Ramus Will Supply Berkeley Schools With Coal at $14.99 Per Ton.

BERKELEY, June 26.—Every member of the Town Board of Education but Director Young was in his seat at 8 o'clock last night, when President Lewis rapped for order. The schoolhouses and sites committee report was referred to the building department. This report shows the needs of houses such as painting, tinting, building of fences and steps, and other minor repairs. The action of Trustee Loring in ordering paints and varnish for the San Pablo avenue school, purchased by the janitor, was confirmed.

The report of the course of study committee was adopted referring to manual training and other studies. That part calling for the establishment of free kindergartens as part of the town school system called out objections from Trustee Loring. The committee advocated the establishment of these, and Loring said he thought this was a waste of money.

Trustee Crawford replied that this action was taken after consultation with the finance committee and it was found it could be done.

WILL SETTLE MATTER.

Finally the matter was again referred back to the course of study committee for further consideration.

Bids were opened for supplying coal to the schools. The Pacific Fuel Company offered carbonettes at $15.75 a ton; Hobbs or Richmond coal at $15.25 a ton; the P. W. Foss Company, American canal coal at $12.50 a ton, not more than 150 tons to be delivered before October 1; J. J. Ramus, Wellington, Hobbs or Richmond coal at $14.99 a ton; Davis & Gordon, Richmond, 15.50, carbonettes, 16. The bid of J. J. Ramus was awarded the coal contract at $14.99 for a long time being the lowest bid.

Bids for heating the San Pablo avenue school addition and Haste street school brought out bids from the following: Globe Engineering Company, both schools, steam heating, $1320; hot-water heating, $1500; from the Robert Dzelz, Jr., Company, both schools, $1414; Charles R. Watts, both schools, $1124. The bids were referred to the finance committee, and this committee will meet Friday evening to consider the bids.

The final payment of $500, due W. M. Anderson for work on the Piedmont school, was ordered paid.

MANY APPLICATIONS.

Applications for positions as teachers were received from Mrs. Edna Bennett MacRae, Miss Etta P. Hunt and Miss Estelle Thompson.

Manager Fred A. Leach, Jr., of the Oakland Gas Light Company, reported to the board that a low-pressure reducer would be placed in the San Pablo school for the purpose of permitting the cooking school to start.

Orders for the school of domestic science supplies were ordered, the same to be returned and opened July 8.

TO TEST CEMENT FOR PROPOSED HIGH SCHOOL

BERKELEY, June 26.—Professor Charles Derleth, head of the structural engineering department at the University of California, sent a communication to the High School Committee last night suggesting tests of cement and reinforced concrete work on the new High School building. He gave forms for tests and these will be carried out by Building Inspector Broad with such assistance as is necessary. The letter reads as follows:

"I respectfully recommend that steps be taken at once by your board to be used in the new High School buildings. These tests should be made at once in order that we may definitely know the properties of the cement used before the reinforced concrete is poured. It is safe to proceed with the foundations, as satisfactory tests have recently been made by the city of Oakland upon the same brand of cement.

I suggest the following procedure:

TEST FOR FINENESS.

"Make a test for fineness. Determine the percentage of cement by weight passing No. 200 and No. 100 sieves.

"Test for time of setting; use vicat needle or other approved apparatus. Determine time of commencement and termination of set in accordance with standard specifications.

"Make twelve briquettes for tension tests. Test four briquettes at the end of 24 hours, four at the end of seven days, and the remaining four at the end of 28 days. The cement for briquettes should be mixed and the specimens stored in accordance with standard specifications.

"Prepare twelve 2-inch cubes (or better still, twelve prisms, 2 inches square in base and six inches in height), the set determined upon to be tested in compression; four at the end of seven days and the remaining four at the end of 28 days, in accordance with standard specifications. Your board may omit the compression tests if desired.

STEAM TEST.

"Accelerated tests: expose a pat of neat cement in an atmosphere of steam above boiling water and a loosely closed vessel for three hours. Make at least three tests.

"Normal tests: Immerse a pat of neat cement in water at 70 degrees Fahrenheit for 28 days. Use at least three tests.

"All tests should remain firm and hard and show no signs of cracking, distortion or disintegration. The tests should be about three inches in diameter, one-half inch thick at the center, tapering to a thin edge and should be made upon a clean glass plate.

"The program of tests under interpretation should be in accordance with the uniform tests of cement prepared by the American Society of Civil Engineers. I suggest that these be made by a disinterested party and that they be reported by you. I should be glad to place upon the report."

JANITOR TO BE POLICEMAN.

BERKELEY, June 26.—On motion of Director Loring of the High School Committee of the board of education, the board was asked to appoint Janitor Haggerty a special policeman, the Marshal to furnish him with a badge.

TO IMPROVE TRAIN SERVICE

Electrification of Alameda Ferry Lines Soon to Be Underway.

ALAMEDA, June 26.—In reply to a communication sent the Southern Pacific Company threatening to veto the Blanding avenue spur franchise, Mayor Taylor has received the following letter from W. R. Scott of the company:

"Honorable Edward K. Taylor, Mayor of Alameda.

"Dear Sir:—Acknowledging receipt of your favor of the 15th with reference to condition of streets in Alameda on Railroad avenue and also with reference to the work on Blanding avenue.

"We have had quite a large force of men engaged for some time on Blanding avenue and the work will be prosecuted to a successful conclusion and in a manner that will be satisfactory to yourself and the citizens of Alameda.

"I will also investigate the situation on Railroad and Encinal avenues and do whatever is necessary to put the streets in proper repair.

"I regret to note in your letter the inference that the Southern Pacific Company does not manifest a suitable disposition to fulfill all the requirements that may have been imposed by the city of Alameda.

"I beg to inform you that the company has the highest regard for the citizens of Alameda and their welfare, and we will continue to improve the service in Alameda until it is the best along the bay. As you undoubtedly are aware, your city will be favored with the first electrification of our suburban

MAYOR SCHMITZ WILL ASK FOR SENTENCE

EXPECTS TO BE DENIED
NEW TRIAL OF CASE
Will Sue Out Writ of Habeas Corpus and Apply to Higher Court for Bail.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Mayor Schmitz will not ask for a stay of sentence when he comes before Judge Dunne tomorrow morning. This much was announced positively by his counsel through Attorney Drew.

It was not expected that the mayor might ask to have his sentence put over until some future time in order to allow the preliminary motions and objections that are being offered, to be passed upon in court. On the contrary, Mayor Schmitz is anxious to have sentence passed in order that his appeal may be filed at once, so he can apply for bail.

DEFENSE CONFIDENT.

"We have every reason to feel confident of the result of an appeal," said Attorney Drew, "and consequently there will be no delay on our part in getting the sentence pronounced at once, and having our appeal filed."

District Attorney Langdon would not say this morning whether any action on his part was contemplated in reference to the Schmitz sentence.

RUEF'S CASE.

By motion of the district attorney, the sentencing of Abraham Ruef has been postponed from time to time and was again put over two weeks this morning. As the case of Mayor Schmitz is quite different and he is not wanted as a witness there is nothing in his case to warrant the same action.

Young Alamedan Is

ALAMEDA, June 26.—The preliminary examination of Ralph E. Parr, accused of forgery, is going on this afternoon in Justice Johnson's court. The first witness called was the accused clerk's father. He stated that his son had often shown traces of insanity and that the family had often been threatened by him.

He recited several instances where the young man had threatened his little brother, and told how Ralph kept a revolver with him constantly.

The aim of the defense is to show that the youth is insane.

Medical testimony may be put on to show that he is not in his right mind, and an effort will be made to have him examined. It is expected that the examination will be concluded some time late this afternoon. It is said Parr married a colored woman. He was employed at Burlingame as a clerk.

ALAMEDA, June 26.—Ralph E. Parr was at 2 o'clock today held to answer to the Superior Court under $3000 bond on a charge of forgery. The only witness called at the hearing this afternoon was Edward Buchmann, of Burlingame, in whose name the check alleged to have been forged by Parr, was signed.

Buchmann denied ever having seen the check and said his name was forged. Attorney James, who was defending Parr, made a motion for dismissal on the ground that there was not sufficient evidence to hold him, but Justice Johnson ruled against him, and held the accused youth to answer.

NEW COLUMBIA.

The new Columbia Theater on Tenth street, between Broadway and Washington streets, which is to open next Monday night is about completed and will be in perfect order when the curtain goes up for the initial performance which will inaugurate an eight-weeks' stay of Kolb & Dill, the famous German comedians. The inside of the cozy playhouse which is lined with pressed steel and is absolutely fire-proof, is also very artistic and the decorations are considered very fine. The seats have been so arranged that each one will afford a good view of the stage. The danger of a catastrophe is entirely done away with owing to the wide exits that lead to the street and which would make it possible to empty the place in three or four minutes if the occasion demanded. The Tenth street entrance when thrown open is about fourteen feet wide and the length is so short that the crush would injure no one. Besides this there are three exits leading to Washington street and through which the crowd could pass with perfect safety. For the past month the artists have been at work painting the scenery for the opening and as the artist in charge is one of the best on the coast and imported here from Manager Keating's Portland Theater, it is needless to say that the work will be first-class and second to none on the coast. The advance sale of seats opened today at the theater, and judging from the demand the management expect a record crowd for the opening night. Messrs Keating and Flood, proprietors of the new amusement house, are particularly well pleased with the way the Oakland people have encouraged them.

Kolb & Dill, with their own company, are one of the highest priced aggregations at present in the business, and in securing them for the eight-weeks' stay in Oakland the management had to make guarantees that are proof positive of the confidence that Keating and Flood have in this city. The success that Kolb & Dill have experienced here in Manager Keating's Portland Theater, it is needless to say that the work will be first-class and second to none on the coast. The advance sale of seats opened today at the theater, and judging from the demand the management expect a record crowd for the opening night. Messrs Keating and Flood, proprietors of the new amusement house, are particularly well pleased with the way the Oakland people have encouraged them.

GOOD DOG ABE TAKES AN OUTING TO COURT
Does Not Have a Word to Say
When His Sentence Is Again Postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—At 10 o'clock this morning Abe Ruef appeared before Judge Dunne in the Superior Court for sentence on the indictment to which he entered a plea of guilty. At the request of the District Attorney's office the case was put over for another fortnight, as Ruef is to give more testimony on some of the graft cases now pending. Ruef appeared to be a very "good dog." He saluted some old friends and acted as though he was still "cock of the walk." He does not seem to realize that he is a dead one.

Ruef appeared in court with Ellsner Biggy, and seemed to be in better health than at the time of his appearance as a witness against Schmitz.

Judge Dunne held court today for the first time since the conviction of Schmitz. He has been at Sisson enjoying a much-needed rest from the arduous strain of the trial.

District Attorney Langdon this morning stated that he will make formal demand upon Treasurer Bantel that he recognize the authority of James L. Gallagher as acting Mayor and qualified to sign warrants for the payment of money from the city treasury. In case Bantel should refuse an action in court will be commenced to compel his submission.

he had suffered at times from delirium tremens.

The witness stated that the dissipation of Judge Loving had completely changed his disposition and that before he started drinking he was pleasant and agreeable, though in later years he had become unreasonable and disagreeable.

Sheriff Beard stated that he knew that Judge Loving was continually drunk for four years while in Amherst county.

Mr. Harrison of Amherst, formerly a lawyer, testified along the same lines as Sheriff Beard as to the excessive drinking and the change it had brought on Judge Loving.

The witness declared that Loving worshipped his daughter, Elizabeth.

HAWTHORNE'S STORY.

Julian Hawthorne, writing of the case gives the following account.

The argument which was begun last night to establish whether Judge Loving's statement might be submitted to the jury was resumed this morning.

The judge finally decided in favor of the defense, and Judge Loving resumed the chair which he had been ornamenting when he was interrupted yesterday.

Here is what he said:

"Harry Snead came to my office that morning after breakfast and after some hesitation told me he had a matter of most serious import to tell me, about us, about my daughter Elizabeth. He said to me that, after taking my daughter to Lovington, he himself had taken a young lady of the village driving and returning about sundown, he had met my daughter driving with Theodore Estes.

TELLS OF GIRL'S RETURN.

"Harry said he went on to the hotel, put up his horse and went to the home of Judge Stevens. He was informed that Elizabeth had not returned, so far as any of them knew, and he went into the parlor, where he remained for some time.

"While in there he heard a buggy pass, being driven rapidly, and he believed that was my daughter and Estes returning. In about a quarter of an hour he said, Mrs. Kidd, the mother of Miss Anne Kidd, the schoolmate and friend of my daughter, came to him in Judge Stevens' home. He told me that Mrs. Kidd appeared to be much excited and worried and told him that Elizabeth had returned from the buggy ride in a very bad condition, and that as she was anxious about her, she felt that it was her duty to inform Mr. Snead, Elizabeth's uncle, of her condition. Harry Snead said he accompanied Mrs. Kidd back to her home and was shown up by his daughter's room and that he found her delirious in bed.

"While on his way, W. B. Lee, a kinsman of my wife and an intimate friend, told him that Dr. Strother had just come to him and told him that when Estes came to get him to see Elizabeth he had said to him that she was drunk."

CRUSHED IN ELEVATOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—L. Peterson of 235 Minna street, was crushed in an elevator at Kearny and Post streets at noon today. He was taken to the receiving hospital where it was found that his chest had been crushed, his legs badly lacerated, and that he had received internal injuries. He is not expected to recover.

TENT TRUST ARRESTS.

DENVER, June 26.—Five other members of the so-called "tent" trust, William E. Brown, H. H. Brooks, Robert S. Guthrie, Alfred A. Proctor and Charles C. Ross, all of Denver, were arrested yesterday on Federal grand jury indictments, charged with conspiring to raise the price of tents in the Government. Each gave bond for $5000.

TRYING TO DOWN THE OLIVER GRAND JURY
Delmas and Coogan Are Battling in an Effort to Save Glass
From Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Before Judge Lawlor this morning the prosecution made its reply to the arguments of the defense in support of the motion to set aside the bribery indictments against Vice-President Louis Glass of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company on the ground that the Oliver Grand Jury which returned them is and since last February has been existing illegally and that hence these indictments are invalid.

The argument for the defense by Attorneys Delmas and Coogan yesterday was in effect that under the law of California the present Grand Jury which was drawn last October, died when the new Grand Jury list for 1907 was certified and returned to the County Clerk in February of this year, therefore, that all of the indictments returned by the Oliver Grand Jury subsequently are void.

The argument in response for the prosecution was made by D. W. Cobb, the law partner of Assistant District Attorney Heney. Mr. Cobb held the meaning of the law to be this: "That the selection and return of the new Grand Jury list does not operate as a termination of the existing Grand Jury, but merely confers upon the court legal opportunity to draw a new Grand Jury upon the discharge by court of the existing body at any time within a year after the empanelment and that nothing except an order of discharge by the court can end the life of a Grand Jury within the twelve months for which it was impaneled."

TRIO IN JAIL MAY FACE
CHARGES OF MURDER

Night Watchman, Who Was Severely
Beaten While Arresting Offenders,
Is in Precarious Condition.

As the result of the beating they are said to have given Nightwatchman J. R. Swift, of Fruitvale, Rennie Condenser, Joseph Gastile and D. Galloway are in the county jail on the charge of assaulting an officer and are likely to answer a charge of murder unless Swift's condition does not take a decided change for the better. Swift lies in a critical condition at his home on Hopkins street near Fruitvale avenue, in Dimond, with a long gash in his head and one eye so badly beaten that the doctors may have to remove it.

At an early hour Tuesday morning the three carpenters were going home somewhat intoxicated. Swift said he met them in Fruitvale and told them to go home or get out of the streets. They are said to have begun abusing the officer and when he started to lead them in a direction of home the officer declares they fell upon him. Galloway says Condenser used some hard instrument that the officers claim was brass knuckles. With this Condenser says he struck Swift on the head. Although staggered by the blow, the watchman drew his gun and took a shot at his assailants. The ball just grazed over Galloway's right shoulder, tearing a wound nearly an inch deep.

Galloway beat a retreat, but Swift managed to place the other two under arrest and lock them in the Fruitvale jail. Swift was so weak from the beating and loss of blood that he could scarcely carry himself home. When he reached his house a doctor was summoned and fourteen stitches were taken in the wound on the top of his head. The skull is not thought to be fractured, but the long scalp wound is a badly torn laceration. One of the blows dealt by his assailants nearly blinded one eye. The optic is so severely beaten that the attending physicians say that Swift has a very light chance to save it.

With the two men in the Fruitvale jail, Galloway was set to be arrested. Condenser and Gastile were reluctant to give the address of their accomplice, but Constables Allen and Carroll located him after a search of all day yesterday. He was found at his home at the corner of Forest and Peralta streets, in Fruitvale. When he was arrested last night the other two were brought with Galloway to the county jail, where they are being held on the charge of assaulting an officer. They will be detained in jail pending the outcome of Swift's injuries.

Former Telegraph Company Employee Refuses to Handle Western Union Dispatches.

Southern Pacific officials deny the report published in the morning papers to the effect that several operators employed by the railroad company in the West Oakland office of the Western Union were discharged for interfering with the telegraph wires.

One Western Union operator named Larsen, who was temporarily employed as a railway telegrapher at the Southern Pacific offices on Oakland mole, was discharged yesterday because he refused to handle Western Union messages which were sent over the railroad company's wires. This is the only instance of interference with the regular telegraphic work that has come to the notice of the Southern Pacific officials. No injury to their wires has been reported at headquarters.

GOLF MATCH DELAYS
ROCKEFELLER'S TRIP

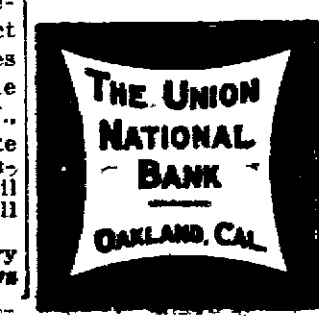

NEW YORK, June 26.—John D. Rockefeller did not leave for his summer home in Cleveland on Monday, as he had planned. Mrs. Rockefeller and a majority of the servants started for Cleveland on Monday night, but Mr. Rockefeller is still at his place in the Pocantico Hills.

The cause of the delay in the departure of the oil magnate is the fact that he has an unfinished golf series to play off with Father Lennon, the Catholic priest of Tarrytown, N. Y., with whom Mr. Rockefeller is quite chummy. As soon as the golf superintendency between the priest and oil king is decided, Mr. Rockefeller will start for Cleveland.

It was said at his home that it very likely would be three or four days before Mr. Rockefeller left.

FOURTH OF JULY PARADE TO BE GORGEOUS PAGEANT

Preparations for the Gala Celebration Are Now Nearing Completion---Prizes Offered for the Best Decorations.

Plans and preparations for the celebration of the Fourth of July are stepping ahead at rapid bounds and all the committees report the best of progress. On the morning of July 2nd, Oakland's streets will be attired in gala decorations. Chairman A. Jones of the decoration committee reported to the general committee last night at the Merchants' Exchange quarters, that the flags and bunting will be on hand to hang on the streets two days before the celebration. With the city clad in gala attire, Jones declares that Oaklanders will feel more like celebrating when the Fourth arrives.

Although the plans for the big illuminated parade headed by Grand Marshal Craig Sharp are still incomplete, the event promises to be one of the principal features of the day and night. There will be no lack of music if the six bands arranged for can be secured. Fireworks along the line of march will mark the parade as one long trail of fire. Big wagons will contain red fire, Roman candles and rockets that will be discharged.

PRIZES FOR DECORATIONS.
To create interest among the merchants, prizes will be offered for the best decorated automobile and the best looking float. The amounts will not be small ones, so keen interest is expected from the business people of Oakland.

The literary committee of the Fourth of July committee have arranged for the following features for the progress on that day:

Vocal Solo....."Star Spangled Banner"
By Clement Rowland.

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.....
Read by Thos. O. Crawford
Oration.....
By A. H. Elliott (Pres. City Council)
One or two additional features are still under consideration by the committee.

In view of the fact that there will be no day parade, the exercises will begin about 11 o'clock in the Macdonough Theater. To get comfortable seats it is desirable to come early.

This will be the first time that Councilman Elliott will deliver the oration on the nation's birthday. To allow the audience to be at their homes for the noon lunch, the reading of the Declaration of Independence will be omitted from the program for the first time in many years.

GENEROUS CONTRIBUTIONS.
The financial end of the celebration could not be better, according to the report of the committee that has money matters in charge. They say that the merchants are more eager than ever to contribute to the celebration fund. The donations speak well of the prosperity of Oakland during the past year. On every hand where the committee seeks money, they meet with a response of more than is called for.

"The real estate men are our best contributors," said Chairman Theodore Gier of the finance committee last night in relating their success. "It stands to show that the real dealers have made more money than any other businessmen in the city."

MORE MONEY THAN BEFORE.
Although the committee has not been steadily in the field making collections, they have more money coming in than was raised two years ago when the last Fourth of July celebration was held in this city.

Everyone is enthusiastic over the Nation's birthday and when the day arrives, Oakland will see the longest and grandest Fourth of July celebration in the State of California. Although the event of the day has not been heralded throughout the country, as some cities have done, Oakland will receive more than her share of the visitors from across the bay and outside towns.

Owing to the National Guard being called to San Diego on the morning of the Fourth, there will be no drill or exhibition from the soldiers of the local companies. The Mexican war veterans will turn out from all parts of the bay counties and celebrate a grand re-union in this city.

WILL ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS.
To entertain these old soldiers, Theodore Gier, Wilbur Walker, Herman Morris and P. M. Fisher have been appointed as a committee to prepare for their comfortable stay in Oakland and to give them a big banquet. Major Sherman will be at the direct head of these veterans, for he is about the oldest and the most prominent of the troopers who won this part of the country for the United States.

PATRIOTIC PROCLAMATION.
In order that the merchants of Oakland will not be slow to hang up flags and decorate their stores, the Fourth of July committee sent out the following proclamation this morning to every business house in the city:

"The Fourth of July committee hopes that the merchants of Oakland will decorate their places of business in honor of our national anniversary. In order to stimulate the spirit of patriotism the executive committee have offered as prizes for the best decorated store fronts three American flags, valued as follows:

"First prize—Fifty dollars.
"Second prize—Thirty dollars.
"Third prize—Twenty dollars."

"A suitable committee will be selected to award these prizes. The merchants are urged to make the decorations worthy of the occasion, as we expect thousands of visitors from neighboring cities.

"All information may be obtained at headquarters, 419 Twelfth street.

"GEO. W. ARPER, Chairman.
"WILBER WALKER, Secretary."

A NIGHT IN VENICE.

There will be a grand display at Lake Merritt on the evening of July Fourth. Thousands of dollars worth of air and water fireworks will be set off, including bombs, rockets, whistles, set pieces, etc., and various other fireworks floating upon the water, also search lights, lanterns, red fire and blue lights in profusion. There will be a grand illuminated naval parade, introducing row, sail, canoe, gondola and motor boats, handsomely decorated and illuminated, also several superbly appointed club boats, all in solid array, moving in column about the lake.

The board have arranged to erect a grand triumphant electric arch upon the lake, under which the naval parade will pass.

The general public who own or can procure a boat, and especially the various boat clubs about the bay, are invited to participate in the parade, for which the board offers the following prizes:

Most Beautiful Display on Water;
Boat or Float—First prize, $50; second, $25; third, $15.

Most Original Display; Boat or Float—First, $40; second, $20; third, $10.

Best Historical Float; Boat or Float—First, $30; second, $15; third, $5.

Special Prize—Best display, boat or float, offered by any club—Oliver loving cups, presented by the Oakland Herald.

Prizes in these events (with the exception of the special prize) will be paid with either cash or trophy, at option of winner.

Only one prize will be given to any one exhibit.

No third prize where there are less than four entries.

There will be a marine railway built from the estuary to the lake to transport those boats on the outside over the Twelfth street dam, so bring your boat and win one of these prizes.

The evening's entertainment will commence at 7 p. m., sharp, with motor-boat races for prizes aggregating $150, and an exhibition of speed by George Lewis, skipper of the Alameda Boat Club, in his wonderful little eighteen foot speed boat, which will attain a speed of twenty miles per hour for several laps around the lake.

Each boat in the parade will be numbered consecutively, and in order to avoid confusion those wishing to take part in the parade for prizes will be required to register, and will be assigned a number by Admiral Albert Rogers, who has charge of the navy.

Registration, which is free to everybody, may be made with Wilbur Walker, secretary, rooms Merchants' Exchange, 419 Twelfth street, on or before July 2nd.

By order Navy Board.
Admirals—Al. Rogers, Alex. G. Bell, Walker, secretary, rooms Merchants' Exchange, 419 Twelfth street, on or before July 2nd.

NEW LIVING STATUES.

LONDON, June 26.—Since the attention of the licensing authorities has been drawn by Puritanical persons and public bodies to the increasing undressed character of the "living statues" shown in the London music halls (which spectators are supposed to look at purely from an artistic standpoint), the managers have found a new way to employ their troupes of trained models. They make them up in admirable imitation of England's famous men and let Londoners see how much better these statues are than those that disgrace the public places in the metropolis. The new living statues are proving as great an attraction as the breathing presentments of the classic sculptures.

AUTO BUSES PROVE SUCCESS

First Big Machine Introduced by Carmen's Union Makes $50 Daily.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—The first of the automobile buses which the Carmen's Union proposes to introduce in San Francisco in competition with President Calhoun's street car lines has been running for nearly a week now. This is the first attempt that has been made to go into actual competition with the street cars on a five-cent basis. It is going to prove a good business venture, according to President Cornelius. He says that the big car now in operation produces a revenue of $50 a day, which not only pays expenses, but leaves a good dividend on the capital invested.

"I wish I had fifty or a hundred of these cars to start at once," said President Cornelius today. "We could not handle the business in that event. The automobiles make better time than the street cars, they are more comfortable to ride in, and the sentiment that is adverse to Calhoun and his methods will support another complete transportation service in San Francisco."

ACCUSES MAN OF SWINDLING

Conductor Claims He Put Up $1000 on Fake Fight at Park —Won't Prosecute.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Marshall J. Howard, a conductor residing at 1060 First avenue, East Oakland, reported to the police yesterday that he was swindled out of $1000 on June 10, by Bert Campbell, the "fake sprinter," and asked that Campbell and three others be arrested. The "sprinter" was arrested on Monday for swindling Roy Sellers of Spokane out of $500 in a fake race at Ocean Beach, and is out on bail.

Howard asked him about putting up $1000 for a fight between Ed Burns and himself, to take place in Golden Gate Park the following day. Campbell was known to Howard as George Collins. He said it was a dead certainty that he would win, and Howard put up the money. The fight came off as scheduled in the park—Howard and a referee being present. Burns gave Campbell two punches and knocked him out. He lay unconscious and it was represented that his skull had been fractured. Howard did not suspect that he had been imposed on till he saw the account of Campbell's arrest in the papers yesterday in connection with the foot race.

Detectives Taylor and Braig found Campbell in "Spider" Kelly's saloon. He ran, but was soon overtaken. Campbell was taken to the city prison, but Howard a few moments later told the detectives he would not prosecute. He was taken before Captain Colby, where he again refused to prosecute Campbell, and was ordered out of the room.

Campbell was released from custody.

LOG CABLE CUTS OFF
TOP OF MAN'S HEAD

SAN MATEO, June 26.—Edele Delmore was killed accidentally Sunday while at work in a logging camp at Waterman Creek, a settlement in the southwestern corner of this county. The top of his head was torn off by a steel cable of a lumber skidway. He was greasing the skids and the swiftly moving cable shifted suddenly and struck Delmore across the face with such force as to completely sever his head across the eyes. He was employed as a laborer by the California Timber Company and leaves a wife and two sons.

Tommy Sheehan
Badly Injured

PITTSBURGH, June 26.—In the game of baseball here yesterday afternoon between the Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds Tommy Sheehan, well-known in Coast League baseball circles, had his hand badly torn while sliding into second base. Joe Nealon had tripped and Sheehan followed with a slide in stealing second base. Sheehan slid into the spikes of Lombardi and his hand was so badly torn that he had to leave the game and will probably not be able to play again for a couple of weeks. Storkie replaced him. Cincinnati won by the score of 4 to 2.

ELI CATES PITCHES NO-HIT
GAME AGAINST BEAVERS

The "Bugs" and "Beauts" and constant readers who attended yesterday's ball game at Freeman's Park got their money's worth, albeit they had to wait a little longer than scheduled time for it.

far from a German people in putting those Beavers on the hog. The entire nine rounds of the combat were fast and spicy, and the Beavers refused to be eaten alive at any stage of the proceedings.

The game was as full of thrills, in spots, as a "mellodrama."

DEMON MANDOLIN PLAYER.

Jimmy Smith, the demon mandolin player of Pinole, who is the best mandolin twanger in that town when he is in it, and the best mandolin player

ELI CATES, who pitched a noted game against Portland yesterday.

The Oakland lads were up against a wreck some where up the road, and they put in their belated appearance at 4 p. m. Instead of 3. But at that the demon Frides got even and put the Beavers against a wreck with Engineer Eli Cates of Green's Fork, Ind., acting as chief engineer. When the Beavers came out of the sliding they did not have a hit to their credit, and only a couple of brain busters on the part of the Oakland team allowed them to score even a single run.

CATES SOME TWIRLERS.
Let us warn the world that Eli Cates, leaving citizen and favorite son of Green's Fork, Ind., is some pitcher. That girgerly gent, aided and abetted by five cents worth of slippery elm put the kibosh on poor Uncle McCreedy's men, and when it was all over Portland did not have one single hit to its benighted credit.

Yesterday morning two gents called at Devereaux's smoke parlors. They asked for Mr. Cates, Esq., of Green's Fork, Ind. "Tiny" took their cards, and slipped them to the only Eli Cates emerged from a den to a local two fellow citizens, of Green's Fork, or just one-fourth of the entire male population of that thriving burg, according to the census of 1900.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.
Cates and his fellow citizens talked about the pigs and "Goats" and about the new plank walk, and other intellectual topics, which the up-to-date citizens of Green's Fork thrashed out when they meet.

Then Eli invited the one-fourth of the Green's Fork male population out to see him in his stunt of subduing the Beavers.

With the eyes of one-fourth of the male population of his home town in far away Indiana watching him, Eli was moved to herculean efforts. Before any rent could beat him into it, and reduce the visible supply of slippery elm, bark Cates cornered the market. He sent an emissary to a local drug store with instructions to buy a whole nickel's worth of slippery elm, yesterday forenoon. "I don't want the powdered form," either," admonished Eli as his personal valet dashed after the precious stuff.

THE SLIPPERY ELM.
That kook's worth of slippery elm had a tragedy concealed in it, which the Beavers were to learn in the afternoon squam.

Eli sifted the bark carefully and couldn't find a single hit in it. He analyzed it as correct as the sequel verifies. Besides Eli wanted to show that one-fourth of the male population of Green's Fork just what a noted fellow citizen he was.

In the country when he is out of it, pulled off a catch yesterday that was "au fait." We ain't hep to what "au fait" means, but Van Halteren said that's what the play was, and as Van studied in the fourth of July, we'll have to let it slide without comment.

In the seventh inning Carson slapped the ball on the gooboon. The sphere began a journey towards Clay Haw-baker's Turkish bath, where the athletes rub the pulverized scenery of their persons after each game. J. Smith started to run, as though somebody bigger in him was after him. Mr. Smith reached some, and he just managed to reach the spot where the ball was going to get off in time to reach out his right hand and spear the globe. Some catch. The "Bugs" and "Beauties" cheered the feat, and made Jimmy remove his military, which was not so cruel, when one remembers that Jimmy has marcel waves in his brain covering his was some catch.

PIECE DE RESISTANCE.
That was one of the piece de resistance of the game, but the real cake-walk happened in the ninth.

Carson removed his faithful guard in this period, and picked out Truck Egan's faithful bat. Bill Squires it is getting close in the fourth of July. Jack wanted to see what kind of a punch Bill has. He was there all right. Carson hit him. Carson pushed him against, then came out to center and past Wallace, while Bliss went to third. Then our faithful first-sacker Mr. Bliss of Richmond, Va., came through with a squeeze play that scored Bliss, and allowed the "Bugs" and "Beauties" to disperse for their cold dinners.

Still, it brought to a close a warm game for the first ball that was pushed in. The Frides got busy in the second inning, when Bliss walked, stole second and scored on Hates' hit.

The Beavers got one, and their only one of the game as a gift, when Cates walked Wallace, and hit Carson among the steel girders, following which Schimpf laid down a sacrifice and Cates walked Wallace to the plate.

Then our R-r-revenge in the ninth. The score

Young Ketchell
In Marysville

MARYSVILLE, June 26.—Never before in the history of the fighting game here has any bout ever approached the coming Thomas-Ketchell scrap, which is scheduled for the afternoon of the fourth of July, in the matter of interest. The pair are scheduled to fight twenty rounds, and in sporting circles here it is the only subject that is discussed with any interest.

The fight is to take place on an immense platform in the very heart of the city. The arena will be protected with a vast canvas to keep the sun from the spectators. Ketchell will arrive in the city last night from Sacramento, and will leave today for Chico, where he will finish his training.

Thomas is due to arrive in the city Thursday, and immediately upon his arrival he will take up his training quarters at the Armory Hall.

Ketchell is not without his admirers here. They believe that he will be able to give to the clever Thomas a good battle.

A HOT TIME IN THE OLD TOWN
In a little "burgh" across the bay. Where all they do is sleep and pray. They awoke one morn in great surprise, For this appeared before their eyes:
PRIZE FIGHT TONIGHT.

They said: "Can such things really be A crime against MORALITY? We have ping-pong, also croquet. Oh, can't we keep these sports away?"
OH, SUCH A PRIZE!

They called the police department out— A noble force, beyond a doubt. They had at least NINE able men, Besides the chief, which made it ten, WITH STARS SO BRIGHT.

The fire fighters then were called, But on foot beat they all got 'balled.' And turned the hose upon the chief, Who sent a call for quick relief.
MY! SUCH A FLIGHT!

At last the fatal night is here. The sports have come from far and near. But not a native can be found— 'Tis EIGHT O'CLOCK, and 'E'll be found.

NOTES ABOUT
RACING MATTERS
By LEE DEMIER.

A rider by the name of J. McCarthy is riding for Barney Schreiber at Buffalo.

Jockey Goldstone is riding in good form at Buffalo.

E. R. Thomas, the millionaire horseman, paid $2000 for the filly out of the good mare Ardia at the Haggin sale the other day.

There is a ban against touts at Laticia.

V. Hughes is again managing Jockey Heigesen. Hughes held the original contract on this boy.

It is reported that M. J. Shannon will succeed Charles Mulholland as trainer of George C. Bennett's horses.

Trainer Goodyear and Jockeys Benson and H. Burns have been put under the ban at the merry-go-round in New Orleans.

Grace Wagner, the four-year-old brown filly by Scorpion-Quintella, died at Laticia recently. She burst a blood vessel while galloping.

The horse Joyner ran away after the last race at Denver the other day, jumped a fence and fell on Jockey Dorsey. The boy's back was sprained and it is not expected that he will be able to ride again this season, if ever.

Jockey "Monk" Overton, who has been out of the saddle since the summer of 1898, had mounts on Stoner Hill and Careless at Laticia the other day. Overton showed alertness at the post and got his mounts away from the barrier in a forward position. He rode vigorously, but the horses under him were not good enough. If he keeps down in weight, he should have no difficulty holding his own among the riders at Laticia.

Calvin Henry, an apprentice jockey in the stable of James McLaughlin, is winning his way into the favor of horsemen in the East by good riding. He first donned the colors at the Ben-ning spring meeting, and there he rode the first of four winners. At the Aqueduct meeting he rode Campaigner to victory in the Flushing Stakes and was not first again until the second meeting at Belmont Park. His fourth winner was Lord Stanhope at Gravesend the other day. He has had fifty-one mounts. He is alert at the barrier and knows how to ride a waiting race over a distance of ground.

In giving instructions to Jockey Wylie at Laticia the other day, W. S. Hughes, the trainer of Prince of Pless, said to him, "Keep awake, you are getting heavy and sleepy lately. You rode at 90 pounds in Hot Springs; now you can hardly do 107. Chickens must be plentiful around your neighborhood. From this on you get elephants in the barn for you to ride."

Los Angeles Wins
Game From Seals

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—A big crowd, a game that kept 2000 people sitting on the edges of their seats; a pitchers' battle that was lost in one fatal inning and about twenty-five star plays of the grandstand order was the spectacle witnessed at Chutes Park yesterday. And the Angels won, for they had to win.

Joy, who has a fast-breaking inshoot and is a husky southpaw, had things going his own way at the start. He made the Angels pull away from his curve ball and then guessing with his dinky-dink of a slider like the one marketed by Moskman.

Carnes gave his single hit in the second inning. Shaughnessy drove the ball past second base for a single, but was nailed in an attempt to steal second, and this was all San Francisco got during the whole game.

Japanese Mat Artists Coming
Wow! BIK! Bang! Ouch!
No, this is not an advance notice for a wild west show. It is merely to let you know, gentle reader, that Tanjiman Lechige, known as Hichiyama, a champion wrestler of Japan, and a little bit of a fellow, who only weighs 350 pounds, at that, is coming to America. Frank Golch, Tom Jenkins, Fred Bear et al, take notice. And this Jap champion is to have with him a string of seven expert Japanese wrestlers and Jiu Jitsu gents. Guess we'll have to call out the navy. The Japanese grapplers are to visit our shores in August.

Crocker's Horse
Wins Irish Derby

DUBLIN, June 26.—Richard Crocker's Orby, winner of the English Derby, won the Irish Derby today.

Georgetown was second. Seven horses started.

The Relays of San Francisco, the fastest amateur team in that city, added another scalp to their already long list of victories by defeating Vallejo last night.

The Relays won a great game by a score of 5 to 4. This makes five games won out of nine played. Goldy pitched one of the best games of the season in the seventh inning were the features. The Relays will journey to Byron this Sunday to cross lads with the home team and expect to add another scalp to their belt. Following is the score:

Horse Racing Is Doomed in Chicago

CHICAGO, June 26.—"There will be no betting on horse racing around Chicago while I am in this office."

This was the statement issued by James J. Healy, State's attorney of Illinois, when he heard that a race meeting might be opened in Chicago.

"If wagering is to be an adjunct to the sport, there is no hope for racing here," said Mr. Healy.

The State's attorney also indicated that any attempts to evade the law through technicalities would be severely dealt with.

"Under the present law," he said, "wagering on horse races is prohibited, and specifications in the statute limit prosecution to bets where a ticket has been given, or where a sheet is kept as a record. This office could prosecute a man for making a bet on the nod, or they say in England, just as effectively as if a ticket was given."

"There is no law against or no objection to horse races, so far as I know. The question hinges on wagering."

SPRAINS HIS KNEE BADLY
BUT IS NOW RECOVERING

J. WALTER LAYMAN, popular prior of the Howard Springs, Lake County, who is slowly recovering from a sprained knee.

Genial J. Walter Laymance Meets With an Accident at His Popular Resort,
Howard Springs, Lake Co.

Friends of genial J. Walter Laymance, owner and "mini host" of that delightful summer resort and all-year-round seat of true hospitality, Howard Springs, in Lake County, will be pleased to learn that he is recovering, though somewhat slowly, from the effects of a sprained knee. It is now five weeks since Mr. Laymance was injured by his foot slipping on a house rug on a polished wood floor. His knee was so badly sprained that his attending physician, Dr. L. F. Herrick is of opinion that the sprain equaled a fracture and that it will require almost as much time to heal.

GREAT CROWD ATTENDS
INTERCOLLEGIATE REGATTA

Columbia, Cornell, Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Georgetown, Wisconsin and Annapolis Send Crews.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26.—All Poughkeepsie was early astir today to prepare for what promised to be a pleasant day for the rowing of the thirteenth annual intercollegiate regatta upon the Hudson river this afternoon.

The first race, the university four-oared shells for the Kennedy challenge cup, brings together Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Cornell in a contest over a two-mile course. This event is scheduled to start at 10 o'clock this afternoon. The second race, the freshman eight-oared shells, sends Cornell, Wisconsin, Syracuse, Pennsylvania and Columbia over a two-mile course for the Stewards' Club cup. This race is scheduled for 1:45.

The University eight-oared shells, over the four-mile course, for the varsity challenge cup, will find several competitors at the starting line—Columbia, Cornell, Syracuse, Pennsylvania, Georgetown, Wisconsin and Annapolis. This will be the first appearance of the Naval Academy boys in the Poughkeepsie regatta.

WEATHER HOT; WATER CALM.

The day was hot and sultry. A feeble, stifling breeze, which came in gusts out of the west, hardly disturbed the shimmering waters of the Hudson, and the crews were happy in the thought of what promised to be a smooth-water course. The crews were up and about quarters with the coming of the day, but the coaches told their charges to take things easy.

All the crew members appeared fit for the occasion. Reports from all the training quarters early today were satisfactory and while all the coaches did not make claims of winning, they all pressed themselves as confident of making good.
